Before being selected for this position, Keith served as Director, Business Management and was responsible for business management functions, including profit and loss, financial forecasting and planning, contract negotiations and earned value and budget management throughout the design and construction for all programs.

Keith began his career with HII in 1998 as a Program Financial Analyst for the DDG 51 Program. From 2002-2005, Keith assumed the position of Finance/EVMS for the Coast Guard Program. He also served briefly served as LPD Program Contract Manager in 2006. In 2007, Keith returned to the DDG 51 Program as Business Manager and earned a Program Excellence Award in March 2010.

In June 2010, Keith assumed the title of Business Manager for the LPD Program. In this role, he led the negotiations for LPD 26, LPD 27, LPD 28 and earned a Program Excellence Award and President's Award. In his current position, Keith has overseen the negotiations for the following contracts: LPD 29, LPD 30, DDG 51, DDG 62 Repair, NSC 8, NSC 9 and NSC 10.

Prior to joining HII, Keith served in multiple roles in the casino industry for several years. He received a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from the University of Southern Mississippi in 1994.

Munn serves on the Mississippi Economic Council Public Education Forum of Mississippi Board of Directors.

Employing more than 11,000 employees, HII's Ingalls Shipbuilding division is the largest manufacturing employer in Mississippi and a major contributor to the economic growth of Alabama. For nearly 85 years, Ingalls has designed, built and maintained amphibious ships, destroyers, and cutters for the U.S. Navy and the U.S. Coast Guard. The largest supplier of U.S. Navy surface combatants, Ingalls is simultaneously building four classes of ships and has pioneered the development and production of technologically advanced, highly capable ships for the surface Navy fleet for decades. Our shipbuilders are honored to build tomorrow's fleet today.
