

Kennedy's 21st Superlift Placed Into Dry Dock 12

Last week, a 965-ton superlift for John F. Kennedy (CVN 79) was placed into Dry Dock 12. This is the 21st superlift that has been placed into the dock since the ship's keel was laid in August 2015. Comprised of two pump rooms, the section was made with more than twice the amount of outfitting work compared to the same superlift on Gerald R. Ford (CVN 78). The 80 feet long, by 100 feet wide section is complete with grating, pumps, valves, pipe, electrical panels, equipment mounting studs, lighting and other outfitting components. On Ford, a large number of those components were installed after the superlift was placed in the Dry Dock.

"We are continuing to make good progress on the Kennedy with a focus on reducing cost. Not only are we taking the lessons learned from the first ship of the class, the Ford, and applying them to our work on Kennedy, we are also approaching the construction of this ship differently to further bring down the cost," said Mike Shawcross, vice president of CVN 79 Construction. "By installing most of the outfitting before the section goes into Dry Dock, we are able to significantly reduce man-hours, which translates to cost savings for the Navy and the American taxpayer."

Kennedy is now 17 percent complete. The carrier is scheduled to be launched in February 2020 and delivered to the Navy in 2022.

Personal Camera-Enabled Devices to Be Allowed on NNS Property May 2

Last week, Derek Jenkins, director of Security and Emergency Management, sent a letter to all employees regarding the status of the company's new security plan to allow employees and visitors to bring personal camera-enabled devices inside the shipyard.

In the letter, Jenkins noted that nearly 100 percent of employees have completed the mandatory training needed for the policy change to be made effective.

"In anticipation of everyone being trained and following the new policy, we expect that employees will be allowed to bring their personal camera-enabled devices on shipyard property starting May 2," Jenkins wrote. "As soon as the policy changes, employees will be notified. Until we confirm the change, these devices are not allowed on company property."

Apprentice Jaycees Volunteer at WHRO

The Jaycees answered calls from supporters who made donations toward the station's effort in maintaining broadcast variety and toward their community initiatives such as American Graduate, Veterans Coming Home, and SkillsOnline.

"It was a bonding experience where we could have a fun time while making a positive impact," said Apprentice Jaycees Community Development Vice President Sin Yi (X42). The event also challenged the Jaycees to focus on a skillset outside of their craftsmanship."

Apprentice School Association President Angel Counts (E06/E63) also volunteered. "It was cool seeing the station behind the scenes and I learned about the musician Muddy Water," she said. "I look forward to volunteering at the next telethon."

Congratulations April EPL Graduates

Newly promoted supervisors and managers are required to attend an Enhancing Personal Leadership (EPL) five-day course once in their new position. Congratulations to the April 2016 EPL class of new supervisors and managers for completing the training.

Machinery Installation Shipbuilders Reach Hydraulics Testing Milestone on Washington

In February, members of Newport News Shipbuilding's Machinery Installation Team (X43) completed hydraulics strength and tightness testing as well as cleanliness flushing on Washington (SSN 787). The testing was completed ahead of schedule and under budget.

"This is the first time a team has completed hydraulic cleanliness flushing before the launch of the ship, and we couldn't be more proud," said Construction Supervisor Phillip Ashe (E25/X82). "A special thanks is owed to all employees who helped with the testing, especially the third shift hydraulic testing team for handling a large portion of the rigorous higher pressure testing."

Throughout the submarine's construction, the team worked closely with NNS pipefitters (X42) and hull mechanical and electrical test engineers (E25).

Ashe added, "Although there were challenges throughout the process, the team worked together and persevered to finish testing. It was definitely a team effort."

Washington was launched on March 25 and is on schedule to join the fleet in the fall of 2016. Watch a time-lapse video of the rollout, flood and launch of Washington on Yardnet.

CVN 65 Shipfitters Recognized for Safety Performance

Shipfitters (X11) working on USS Enterprise (CVN 65) were recognized by company leadership for their continuous focus on safety and their efforts to improve safety within their work area.

In honor of the team's hard work Joe Sabol, X11 trade director, hosted an appreciation luncheon for the team.

"I wanted to do something to recognize the team for their efforts," said Sabol. "This group of employees takes ownership of their own safety and watches out for others as well."

Sarah Gentry (X79) said, "My team is like a family and we talk, walk and promote safety, it is never on the back burner, it is always priority one."

AASA to Hold 2nd Quarter Meet and Greet Event

On May 5, the African American Shipbuilders Association (AASA) will host its second quarter meet and greet event in the VASCIC auditorium from 4:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Chandra McCulley-Hooker, sheet metal trade director, will be the guest speaker and will speak about inclusion and diversity. The event is free and open to all employees. Light refreshments will follow the event.

For questions contact Robin Lee (O53) at 688-6059.

Personal Camera-Enabled Devices

The letter also informed employees that they will begin to see personal camera-enabled device signage posted in facilities throughout the shipyard. Jenkins added, "It is important to understand that because these signs will be on display, NNS' current policy of strictly prohibiting personal camera-enabled devices will not change until May 2."

Additional information about the policy change will be communicated to employees prior to May 2. View the current list of FAQs about the updated policy on pages 4-5. If you have a question you would like to see included on the FAQ list, send an email to O15SDCC@hii-nns.com.

Last week, building coordinators began posting personal camera-enabled device signage to identify "Camera Prohibited Zones" throughout the company. Note: Though these signs are on display, personal camera-enabled devices are not allowed on NNS property until May 2. Photo by John Whalen

Personal Camera-Enabled Device Policy

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

1. Can I use my work computer to charge my personal device?

No. Personally owned devices and/or equipment should NEVER be connected to the Newport News Shipbuilding Network (NNSCORP) or any Huntington Ingalls Industries computer.

2. Before I enter an area where personal camera-enabled phones are prohibited, what should I do with my personal phone or device?

Personal phones and other camera-enabled devices should be left in your desk, tool box, storage locker or other secure location. Taking your personal device into these prohibited areas will result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

3. Do I need a red camera icon on my badge to carry my personal camera-enabled device with me on shipyard property or inside of shipyard gates?

No. The red camera icon indicates those employees who are allowed to take photographs on company property with company-approved cameras.

4. What if someone tries to video message me while I am at work (i.e. FaceTime, Skype or other apps)? Can I answer and tell them to call me back later?

No, employees cannot communicate by camera-generated apps of any kind while on company property.

5. Can I connect my personal device to Newport News Shipbuilding Wi-Fi networks or hotspots?

No, only company owned devices can be connected to the Wi-Fi hot spots in the shipyard.

6. If there is no Navy work showing in the background or if I am inside of a Newport News Shipbuilding facility, is it okay for me to take a photo with my personal device?

No, the camera and video feature is prohibited on personal camera-enabled devices while on Newport News Shipbuilding property. NNS property includes but is not limited to parking lots and off-site buildings.

7. Can I use the audio recording feature on my personal device while on Newport News Shipbuilding Property?

No, the audio recording feature on a personal device is prohibited.

8. If I see an unauthorized person taking photo or video on Newport News Shipbuilding property, who should I contact?

If you observe an individual taking unauthorized photos and/or video, immediately call the Security Command Center at (757) 380-4031 and report the unauthorized activity. After contacting NNS Security, notify your immediate supervisor.

9. If I see a photo or video taken at Newport News Shipbuilding by an unauthorized individual and posted to the Internet, social media sites or on an app, who should I contact?

Immediately call the Security Command Center at (757) 380-4031 and report the unauthorized activity. After contacting NNS Security, you should notify your immediate supervisor.

10. If I report a coworker, will I be required to identify myself? Is there an anonymous hotline I can call?

Huntington Ingalls Industries offers an anonymous and confidential means to voice concerns or report a suspected violation of our Code of Ethics and Business Conduct without fear of retaliation or coercion. The OpenLine – (877) 631-0020 – is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and is administered by an external supplier.

11. What will the camera-prohibited signs look like? See examples below.

12. Are there rules about geo-tagging or checking in at various locations on Newport News Shipbuilding property?

Newport News Shipbuilding does not currently have a policy for geo-tagging or location check-in, however employees are encouraged against the action for their safety. Geo-tagging and location time stamping allows criminals to know your current locations and habits.

13. If Newport News Shipbuilding Security personnel asks to look at my phone, do I have to give them permission/hand over my phone?

Yes. Newport News Shipbuilding reserves the right to screen, inspect and search any phone brought onto company property. Security also has the right to confiscate any device that has been used in an unauthorized manner.

14. What are the consequences of taking unauthorized photo or video on Newport News Shipbuilding property?

Taking unauthorized photographs or video will result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

15. Does NNS Security have the right to take away my phone?

Newport News Shipbuilding reserves the right to screen, inspect and search any phone brought onto company property. Security also has the right to confiscate any device that has been used in an unauthorized manner.

16. Can I use my personal device to conduct business? If so, are there any restrictions?

Because of the sensitive nature of our work, you should not send any information over your personal device that includes business information. However, if you want someone from work to be able to contact you on your personal device, you may use the phone feature or text feature. But you may not transmit any information specific to the work you are performing.

17. If my personal device is lost or stolen, who is responsible?

Employees are responsible for any lost, stolen or damaged personal property.

18. Will there be any “Camera-Safe” Zones where I can use photo or video features on my personal device?

The only times photography/videography has been allowed on shipyard property is during special events, such as a christening ceremonies. When exceptions like this are made, it will be communicated in advance.

19. Teladoc is a free service offered to employees by Newport News Shipbuilding. Can I use this service at work? Many times the doctor requests to live video chat.

No, you may not use any photo or video app that takes or records photos/videos.

20. I have a question that is not included on the list, who should I contact?

Send all questions to O15SDCC@hii-nns.com.
