

Apprentice School Celebrates First Annual "National Apprenticeship Week"

During a White House Summit on Apprenticeship this past September, the U.S. Department of Labor announced a new "National Apprenticeship Week" to be celebrated annually in November. This year, the observance started Nov. 2. The purpose of the week is to honor registered apprenticeships throughout the country.

In honor of "National Apprenticeship Week," The shipyard's Apprentice School hosted an essay contest in October featuring the question, "What has my apprenticeship meant to me?" The contest was facilitated by the school's student-body government. The winning essay will be announced this week and will be posted to the U.S. Department of Labor's website.

On Oct. 27, Everett Jordan, director of education at The Apprentice

School, attended a Newport News City Council meeting, where he received a formal proclamation recognizing The Apprentice School and National Apprenticeship Week.

"For nearly 100 years, Newport News Shipbuilding has sponsored apprenticeships to provide valuable human capital to its business," said Jordan. "Our school has been recognized as a national leader and has set the 'gold standard' among apprenticeship programs around the country."

Some of the proceeds for the second annual race will benefit The Center for Sexual Assault Survivors, Fear 2 Freedom, and Transitions Family Violence Services. Bill Bell, vice president of Human Resources and Administration, expressed the shipyard's excitement to continue its long partnership with the city by serving as the presenting sponsor for the upcoming event.

"We are pleased to continue our 129-year history with the city," Bell said. "The One City Marathon brings greater focus to the issue of health and wellness, not just at our shipyard, but to the entire community of Newport News."

The second annual One City Marathon will be held March 13. All NNS/HII employees and their families are able to receive a discounted registration fee for the marathon, relay, 8K and nautical mile. Are you planning to run in one of the events? Contact Jeremy Bustin (O29) at 380-4384 to find out how you can participate for free.

Foremen Complete FQS Process

In September, 14 Newport News Shipbuilding foremen completed the final step in the Foremen Qualification Standards (FQS) process by completing the General Foreman's Proficiency Board held in the Management Development Center. Implemented in 2012, FQS is a tool used by general foremen to mentor, track progress, and establish a framework for successful performance.

Upon attaining proficiency on all tasks in the guide, the general foreman recommends their foremen to appear before a board of peer general foremen. The board evaluates the candidate through a series of questions related to how the foreman demonstrates the desired leadership and management behaviors on the job.

The process is rigorous and requires a significant investment in time from all participants. Since the program's inception, 81 foremen have successfully completed the process. The next FQS proficiency board is scheduled for the first quarter of 2016.

VCS Crew Breaks Record on Build Process for the “Ferris Wheel”

In August, six shipbuilders working in the Sheet Metal Shop were challenged with building a structure known as the “Ferris Wheel” for Virginia-class submarine Vermont (SSN 792). This assembly protects Navy personnel from moving equipment and is one of the largest deliverables the Sheet Metal Shop has for the VCS program. The team was able to accomplish the build with zero accidents, 100 percent first-time quality, a 55 percent reduction in cost, and a 70 percent reduction in man-hours.

The crew’s Foreman Billy Henderson credits the team’s success to teamwork. “As soon as we were tasked with the project, we sat down with representatives from Manufacturing Engineering and Planning (X59) and the company’s visualization team to develop a build plan to streamline the build process and determine the best way to assemble the guard,” he said. “It was an all-hands effort. The team came up with many new ideas and ways to improve the build process and assemble the guard. I can’t say enough good things about the collaboration efforts – they were outstanding.”

Welder and Mechanic William Hurst said that the most challenging aspect of the build process was welding. “Some of the areas on the guard were very small, so the work was very time consuming,” said Hurst. “It was very helpful that almost everyone on the team is both a welder and mechanic, and capable of performing both types of work. Overall, we learned a lot and have several ideas on how we can improve on the next guard.”

General Foreman Jason Roach said he is excited about the crew’s performance. “I’m especially excited about the ideas being evaluated to eliminate additional cost on future hulls,” he explained. “I have no doubt in my mind that this crew can build this unit and break records again.”

The team was recognized with an Excellence in Action (EIA) Award for their success on the project. View p. 5 for a complete list of fourth quarter EIA award winners.

PROTECT YOURSELF FROM CRIME

Sunday, November 1 marked the end of daylight savings time for 2015. As the days become shorter, Security and Emergency Management would like to remind all employees about the following safety tips. Take time to review the list below, so if you find yourself in a dangerous situation, you are better prepared. As always, if you witness or a victim of a crime, report it immediately to 911 or Newport News Shipbuilding Security Command Center (SCC) at *911 or (757) 380-2222.

DO

Remember to always keep items secured and hidden from plain view inside your vehicle. It is always best to lock items in trunk when applicable.

Have a plan. Know what you would do if a certain situation arises.

Trust your instincts and remain alert – if a situation seems dangerous or threatening, call 911 and report the crime to the Police or *911 or 380-2222 for NNS Security.

If you know you're going to be working late, try to park your vehicle closer to your building or exit gate.

Let someone know when you're leaving and inform them when you arrive at your destination.

If possible, park in well-lighted areas with good visibility and close to walkways, stores and other people. Always have your keys available.

When out walking at night or before daylight, try to have a friend walk with you for company and comfort. Remember, there is safety in numbers.

If you must walk alone to your vehicle and feel uncomfortable, call the NNS SCC non-emergency number at 380-4031.

If you have a car problem while at work (e.g. won't start, has a flat tire, etc.), stay inside and call for help. Wait inside your locked car until assistance arrives. For non-emergencies, call a roadside service provider or NNS Security at 380-4031

Always lock your vehicle, even if it's in your own driveway.

Program emergency numbers into your cell phone and be prepared to use them if necessary. Be aware of your surroundings at all times. If you think someone is following you, switch directions or cross the street.

If you witness or are a victim of a crime, please report it immediately to NNS Security or the local police agency for that city.

DON'T

Walk or jog alone when the streets are dark or deserted.

Display cash or any inviting targets such as cell phones, hand-held electronics or expensive jewelry and clothing.

Be distracted when using mobile devices outdoors.

Leave your vehicle running when it's unattended. Give strangers a ride for any reason or let them into your vehicle.

Indicate where you live to a person you don't know.

Give up your life. If you are robbed or assaulted, immediately call 911 and report the crime to the Police or *911 or 380-2222 for NNS Security. Try to describe the attacker accurately. Your actions can help prevent someone else from becoming a victim.

Engage in conversation if confronted on the street, politely decline and keep as much distance from the person as possible.

Open your door. If a stranger knocks on your door, don't let them enter your residence. If they will not leave your property, call 911 – no exceptions!
