Questions for Discussion on the Video and Inclusion and Diversity:

1. How has your perception of Asian Americans changed after hearing John’s story?

2. After hearing John’s story, do you believe America is the “Land of Opportunity” for all? Why or why not?

3. Have you ever had a major life change comparable to when John’s family moved to America? What was that like for you?

4. How can people be more sensitive to different cultures and traditions?

“I’m an American citizen and served in the U.S. Navy. When I came to America from Taiwan, English was a language barrier. Bullies picked on me, and I couldn’t express my emotions through my words. Being able to communicate is very important. We have so much to learn from one another. Without people from different nationalities and countries, we would not have this melting pot today.”
